

A three server web infrastructure that hosts the website www.foobar.com, it must be secured, serve encrypted traffic, and be monitored Split components (web server, application server, database) with their own server

